The City of Pančevo is located in the northern part of Serbia, bordering the City of Belgrade on the western side and even sharing public transportation infrastructure with the Serbian capital. City port on the River Danube and E 75 Highway gives Pančevo direct access to two main Pan European transport routes, Corridor VII and Corridor X. Pančevo is the hub of chemical industry of Serbia – as it was in the former Yugoslavia, with robust oil refinery, fertilizer and glass factories coupled with rapidly growing community of small businesses and entrepreneurs. In addition to the strategic geographical location with duty-free exports to the countries of European Union, CEFTA region and Russia, City of Pančevo is able to offer educated and skilled labor force at a very competitive cost. Pančevo strategic priorities include the development of the new Northern Business Zone, promotion of river ports, better use of huge agricultural potential and modernization of local administration. Besides business friendly environment, the City is also offering rich cultural life, developed network of educational, healthcare and social institutions, beautiful parks and various sports and recreational facilities which make Pančevo a place of choice for living and raising a family.
